

🌳 The Band _____

Sam Bartlett, noted Stuntologist, currently resides in Bloomington, IN and makes most of his living gigging nationally with numerous musicians and bands. He's played banjo and/or mandolin for, among others, Stringrays, Notorious, and Wild Asparagus.

Eric Schedler, a world-renowned brick-oven baker residing in Bloomington, IN, plays accordion and piano for contra and English Country Dancing with, among others, the Cosmic Otters and Supertrad. Eric has performed at camps and festivals across the country.

Dave Langford is an experienced and versatile fiddler and guitarist and fiddle teacher from the Boston area. A veteran of 20 years of playing for public dances, weddings, parties and late night sessions, Dave frequently tours nationally as a Latter Day Lizard.

🌳 The Caller _____

Susan Kevra burst on the contra dance scene in New England in the early 1990s. She travels to call at dance camps throughout the country and, occasionally, around the globe. She is a professor of French and American Studies at Vanderbilt University, where she teaches a class, "American Social History through Dance."

Registration

Preregistration is required. Space is limited and we've sold out the past several years, so please register early. Preference will be given to full-time registrants. Part-time registrations will be admitted after September 8 if space permits. All registrations are processed based on the postmark date of your payment. We will confirm your registration and/or onsite accommodation if we receive your email address or self-addressed stamped envelope.

Cancellations and Refunds: Refunds will be granted until August 30 less a $5.00 processing fee. No cancellations after then, and no substitutions allowed at any time.

Children: Children are welcome. For the safety and enjoyment of all, an adult must supervise children at all times. We are unable to offer special children's programming.

Please note: All registrations—full-time or part-time — must be received by our registrar, Jim Winkle. The email address for all registration-related questions is

SquirrelMoonReg@gmail.com

We will send you specific details about the location, accommodations, and food with your confirmation when we receive your payment (if space is available.)

Tenting: $10 per night per tent.

Rustic Bunkhouse (electricity, hand pump for water, clean pit toilet): $15/person/night, 3 blocks from Farwell Hall (the dance hall). Bring your own bedding, pillow, towel. (Note: the bunkhouses may be musty.)

Showers are available in Farwell Hall.

Hotels are available in Dodgeville within 7 miles. See www.squirrelmoon.org for a list.

Festival Food

NEW!! Please bring your own water bottle!! In an effort to conserve resources, we will no longer be providing disposable plastic cup. Please bring your own container for water and lemonade.

If you are so inclined, please bring a homemade non-refrigerated dessert that can be eaten without utensils. (We've had plenty in the past...)

We provide tasty, nutritious meals for Friday dinner, Saturday breakfast, lunch and dinner, and Sunday brunch including lacto-ova vegetarian offerings.

Only kitchen staff and volunteers working under staff supervision will be permitted to use the kitchen facilities.

Those with more specific dietary needs are requested to bring their own supplemental foods – very limited storage space is available- and will be able to use the kitchen to prepare foods. Please see Pam when you arrive.

Volunteering

Thanks for helping out as it's needed. Please sign up for a task at squirrelmoon.org or upon arrival. Your willingness to volunteer helps us keep the cost of the weekend low. And it's a great way to make new friends!

Directions

Folklore Village (3210 County BB, Dodgeville, WI, ½ mile south of Hwy 18/151) is 35 miles west of Madison and 6 miles east of Dodgeville. A new, safer exit ramp is under construction and will necessitate some last minute directions that we'll get to you!!
